

When Relationships Collide
Lesson 2: It's Not About Me
1 Samuel 24:1-15

Selfless: having or showing great concern for other people and little or no concern for yourself

Question: How far are you willing to go to get your own way?

1 Samuel 24:1-2

1 After Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, "David is in the Desert of En Gedi." 2 So Saul took three thousand able young men from all Israel and set out to look for David and his men near the Crag of the Wild Goats.

1 Samuel 24: 3-7

3 He came to the sheep pens along the way; a cave was there, and Saul went in to relieve himself. David and his men were far back in the cave. 4 The men said, "This is the day the LORD spoke of when he said to you, 'I will give your enemy into your hands for you to deal with as you wish.' " Then David crept up unnoticed and cut off a corner of Saul's robe. 5 Afterward, David was conscience-stricken for having cut off a corner of his robe. 6 He said to his men, "The LORD forbid that I should do such a thing to my master, the LORD's anointed, or lay my hand on him; for he is the anointed of the LORD." 7 With these words David sharply rebuked his men and did not allow them to attack Saul. And Saul left the cave and went his way.

1 Samuel 24:8-15

8 Then David went out of the cave and called out to Saul, "My lord the king!" When Saul looked behind him, David bowed down and prostrated himself with his face to the ground.
9 He said to Saul, "Why do you listen when men say, 'David is bent on harming you'?"
10 This day you have seen with your own eyes how the LORD delivered you into my hands in the cave. Some urged me to kill you, but I spared you; I said, 'I will not lay my hand on my lord, because he is the LORD's anointed.' 11 See, my father, look at this piece of your robe in my hand! I cut off the corner of your robe but did not kill you. See that there is nothing in my hand to indicate that I am guilty of wrongdoing or rebellion. I have not wronged you, but you are hunting me down to take my life.
12 May the LORD judge between you and me. And may the LORD avenge the wrongs you have done to me, but my hand will not touch you.
13 As the old saying goes, 'From evildoers come evil deeds,' so my hand will not touch you.
14 "Against whom has the king of Israel come out? Who are you pursuing? A dead dog? A flea?
15 May the LORD be our judge and decide between us. May he consider my cause and uphold it; may he vindicate me by delivering me from your hand.

Application Questions

- What do you do if the person in conflict with you is the one being selfish?
- What are some signs that someone's behavior or attitude is out of line?
- What tempts people to take matters in to their own hand?
- What do you find challenging in David's attitude and behavior?

Live It Out

The higher we elevate our own needs and desires ahead of others, the more we feed conflict. We get defensive and angry when things don't go our way. Instead, let's elevate God's agenda.

- Don't make the issue about yourself. Work to see the other people's viewpoint.
- Admit when you've been self centered. Acknowledge to the other person where you have erred in the conflict.
- Support the other person. Even if you have the right stance in the conflict, find a way to tangibly encourage the other person.
